Language and the Media 4 volume set

Edited by Helen Kell Holmes

What makes language in the media different from 'everyday' or 'person-to-person' domains is the presence—seen or unseen, human or technical—of some intermediary or facilitator, and it is the impact on language by this facilitation or mediation that is the focus of this new 4 volume collection.

マルチモダリティ 全4巻

Multimodality 4 volume set

Edited by Sigrid Norris

Multimodality is a fast growing area of inquiry as the interest in modes beyond, but always also including language, such as layout, gesture, gaze, or body posture is increasing. This is research from various fields interested in examining language as it is embedded in a vast array of other modes, rather than a coherent field of inquiry. Topics range from language studies to education and classroom discourse, from sociolinguistic inquiries into work place practice to communication, from psycholinguistics and gesture studies to systemic functional grammatical inquiries.
